

Future RAD Artist Submission Form

We are looking to house a diverse group of artists that are eager to tell stories and are professional when it comes to dealing with clients and completing projects.

Before submitting your future RAD artist submission form on the Radish House website, the following below are the criterias that should be sent to us to be considered.

Portfolio Criteria:

- A paragraph consisting of at least 5-6 sentences of your artist bio telling the world who you are as an artist.
- A professional portfolio as a single PDF format showing your strength and skills in the areas you want to receive work at.
- Portfolio be in A4 format with your name clearly on each page.
- Have a simple resume ready to help the team get to know you better.
- Show a range of skill sets in a specific area that you are confident in, for example, if you are good at food illustration show that.
- Check out our artists on the RAD artists page and make sure your art is not too close in style to any of the current artists.

Q&A:

What are we looking for in upcoming talents?

- Storytellers; storytelling is a huge part of what we do at Radish House showing that your portfolio would give you extra points.
- A great understanding of design principles.
- A neat and well-put-together visual portfolio.
- A sense of direction and understanding of working in the freelance market.

If I am not chosen to be a RAD artist, what do you recommend we do?

- Send a thank-you note to the RAD team. This shows you are a sport and that we will for sure keep your sweet note in the memory of the team when searching again for new artists. Ask yourself what could be improved in your portfolio to be able to join. Make sure to set up a plan to get your portfolio to the next level.
- Take classes and workshops to help improve your artwork and portfolio. Our RAD-learning is a great way to get to know our team and they get to know you while growing your skillset and community of artists.

What are the perks of being a RAD artist?

- Being featured and promoted in our platforms (website and social media)
- Promoting your artwork and skills to clients.
- Negotiating and setting up deals and contracts on your behalf
- Offering free passes to all of the RAD learning classes.
- A community of artists to be part of and to share experiences.
- A team of dedicated RADs to help you achieve your goals and prep for client work.

How long can I be part of the agency?

We understand growth as we are a plant-based house that encourages organic and healthy growth for each of our artists. Every year we will be setting up a checking point and see if we are still the best fit for you at this point in your career. With most of our artists, we will still keep in touch and continue supporting you for sure!

Please feel free to email us at RadishHouseAgency@gmail.com, if you have any questions. We look forward to hearing from you!
